Jeremiah 18:1 – 6

A word to Jeremiah;

Because he was _____. He was _____.

He was _____. He went where God told him to go.

Lesson from Jeremiah - 2 John 1:6

The Clay;

Was _____, a lump from the ground. It was not pretty. It changes shape easily.

The _____ shaped it. Not due to the ability of the clay, but despite its nature.

The clay accomplishes _____. It doesn't know what it can become.

Lessons from the clay – 1 Thessalonians 4:3 "It is God's will that you should be sanctified..."

The Pot; _____. Not because of the Potter

It was not what the potter had in _____.

He renewed his endeavor. He didn't _____.

The remade pot was now beautiful. It was a finished work, yet, not finished. It would now become a part of someone's home. It had _____.

Lesson from the pot – Romans 6:4

The Potter can do what he wants with the clay. He could choose to _____ the pot.

God is the potter. He is seeking to mold _____, and _____, and _____.

Patently and continually working and reworking to accomplish his purpose.

Lesson from the potter - Romans 12:2

Israel was brought back out of _____. A new nation was formed.

Jeremiah was given a promise from God about that time. Jeremiah 29: 10

God was forming a new nation. Jeremiah 31:33 33

God was putting his _____ on this pot.

God's power can reform nations and societies. Romans 11: "17 -21

God claims us as his own.

Ephesians 2:10 "For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do."

The lump of clay is once again on the potter's wheel. His hands are around us, starting to push, and guide, and form the thing he has already in his mind. If we remain faithful, obedient, and humble, careful to listen to His word, there will be a new vessel, to be used in wonderful ways to pour out God's love and blessings.
