About The Fry Family & Ministry:

Rod and Mayra, along with their three kids, are missionaries with Commission to Every Nation, serving in church planting and mobilization in Mexico City.

Rod initially came to Mexico in 1989, and taught for one school year in Puebla Christian School. After language studies in Costa Rica, Rod met Mayra in 1993, and they were married in 1995 in Mexico City. Their wedding was officiated by Ken Hanna, mentor and friend, who has since gone to glory.

They have served as a couple since 1997 in Mexico City, first in Iztapalapa, D.F. for 6.5 years, then for the last 10 years in Ixtapalapa, on the southeast edge of the metro area. Their passion is to see a congregation formed where none existed before. They have planted four churches during their years of ministry.

Their prayer life has increased considerably since their kids started hitting the teenage years! Among their other interests: guitar, reading, tacos (the authentic kind!) and board games (Settlers of Catan, Power Grid, Dominion).
