

BAPTISM AND...EASTER EGGS?

Baptism is a way Christians publicly declare:

1. “I was dead, but now I’m alive”
(Col 2:12; Rom 6:3-11)

2. “I’m under new ownership”
(Matt 28:19)

3. “I’ve been forgiven”
(Acts 2:38; Titus 3:5)

4. “I’m a member of Christ’s community”
(Acts 2:38-41)

Baptized today: Mary Sturkie, Makayla Halbleib, Carolyn Rineer; welcomed into membership: Makayla Halbleib and Mary Sturkie by profession of faith and Vicki Eshelman, Nikki and Gary McNece by letter of transfer

BAPTISM AND...EASTER EGGS?

Baptism is a way Christians publicly declare:

1. “I was dead, but now I’m alive”
(Col 2:12; Rom 6:3-11)

2. “I’m under new ownership”
(Matt 28:19)

3. “I’ve been forgiven”
(Acts 2:38; Titus 3:5)

4. “I’m a member of Christ’s community”
(Acts 2:38-41)

Baptized today: Mary Sturkie, Makayla Halbleib, Carolyn Rineer; welcomed into membership: Makayla Halbleib and Mary Sturkie by profession of faith and Vicki Eshelman, Nikki and Gary McNece by letter of transfer